Garden with a gorgeous view over the hills and vineyards of Chianti.

The annexed large Vistarenni farm (more than 100 acres) hosts the XVII century Villa that was owned by the noble family of Prince Ferdinando Strozzi and later by Baron Giorgio Sonnino.

Dining room, living room, library, conservatory, kitchen.

Our concierge will help you discover the beauties of Tuscany and Chianti by organizing tailored tours with food & wine tasting, breakfast & dinners at the Villa, shopping service, baby sitting and airport transfers.

The Villa is located in a strategic position to visit the most fascinating places in Tuscany as Siena is 30 km away, Florence 45 km and Arezzo 45 km.

Today Villa Vistarenni is considered an official historical monument and cultural heritage of the state of Italy.

You can visit our historical cellars beautifully carved in stone with `volte a crociera` ceiling in `cotto` tiles. Here, Wine ages and gets flavoured in oak barrels and barrique.

The interior of the house displays signs of its glorious past, with golden coffered ceiling, paintings, `cotto` tiled floors, painted wooden beams, curtains and upholstery, design objects and furniture, and finally, the ancient kitchen.
